

2009 Reunion Weekend

SEPTEMBER 2008

May 15, 16 & 17

Remember — Return — Reconnect

We are planning an exciting Reunion Weekend for you on May 15, 16, and 17, 2009! How long has it been since you strolled through the halls of the School of Dental Medicine? Have you wondered how things have changed since then? Your alma mater continues to grow and evolve, but one thing that remains the same is the joy of reliving college memories and visiting with old friends from near and far. Come back for your reunion and enjoy a jam-packed weekend of things to do and people to see.

Reunion giving is a rich tradition at Case Western Reserve University School of Dental Medicine, and significant to the success of our Annual Fund. In honor of your reunion year, please plan to support the school by increasing your past support or by making a first-time gift. With your support, you can provide vital funds to support student scholarships, retain and attract outstanding faculty, sustain state-of-the-art technological resources, and develop cutting-edge curriculum. Individual gifts count towards a class gift. All gifts received by June 30, 2009 will be counted in the reunion giving class totals.

In addition to giving you the occasion to celebrate, your anniversary year also gives you and your classmates the opportunity to help ensure the School of Dental Medicine's continuation as a leader in providing a quality education for our students. We hope you will participate in the school's reunion giving challenge. One of the greatest resources of any academic institution is its alumni body and this is especially true for the School of Dental Medicine.

The classes with the highest increase in participation rate will be recognized during Reunion Weekend. Also the class with the highest giving amount will receive special recognition.

Volunteers Needed

Every reunion begins with the formation of a reunion class committee. Each reunion is different because each class is different. That's what makes planning a reunion so exciting. The success of Reunion Weekend 2009 depends in large part on the active participation, enthusiasm and commitment of class representatives. Reunions are typically promoted by a committee of class volunteers. In the past, classes have found that having large, active committees not only makes reunion promotion easier, but also encourages more participation. It is not necessary for class representatives to reside in the Cleveland area. You will enjoy being involved as a class representative. As a volunteer, you can become closer and reconnect with classmates while helping your class have an unforgettable weekend.

The staff in the Alumni Office is available throughout the reunion planning process to assist you. Their goal is to work with class representatives to ensure a fun and successful reunion. To volunteer, contact the Office of Development and Alumni Relations toll free (877) 468-1436 or dentalalumni@case.edu.
